WELCOME BACK TO REMBRANDT COURT SAM!

After spending five months on maternity leave, this week we have welcomed back Sam Duffield. Sam has jumped back in to her role as Residential Services Administration Coordinator three days a week. Along with tours, admissions and administration assistant to the clinical and residential teams, she is also a full time mumma to Leo Douglas. A big part of Sam's role is to help funnel the right information through to the right people.

As an organisation it is important that we regularly seek input and feedback from our residents, staff and family members. This feedback helps our organisation continuously improve. If at any stage you would like to get in contact with Sam please email her directly at sduffield@rembrandtliving.org.au or call (08) 8198 0300.

Rembrandt Court Café now open

ARE YOU MISSING A BAG OF CLOTHING?

Our laundry team returned a bag of unlabelled clothing to reception this past week, this bag has been missing its owner since July 2022.

Unfortunately the bag was unlabelled so we are unsure who it belongs to.

The bag contains a number of ladies clothing items (tags still on, Brand new) inside – presumably for labelling.

- 3 x pair of Noni B leggings various colours size small
- 3 x Noni B cream jumpers various colours size small & medium
- 1 x Noni B Cardigan navy with white spots size small

Please let our team know if these items belong to you so we can return to the rightful owner - fully labelled.

Please note if this bag is unclaimed in 14 days we will donate to charity.
